HELPFUL INFORMATION for RE-EMPLOYMENT

WorkOne Southwest (Indiana Workforce Development)

700 East Walnut Street
Evansville, IN 47713

Call 1-812-424-4473 for an appointment.

www.in.gov/dwd

Office Hours: 7:00AM - 4:30 PM Monday through Friday

This is a very major resource for those seeking unemployment benefits and assistance with identifying new employment possibilities. The website listed above provides a wealth of information about unemployment benefits, resume preparation, sharpening job interview abilities, developing job skills through education, and finding job openings. Interested parties are advised to directly contact this office first before enrolling as an individual in classes. Self-enrollment may eliminate the possibility of WorkOne paying for the cost of the education. Special assistance may be available to veterans. This department also provides a wide array of services to employers.

Indiana Career Connect

www.indianacareerconnect.com/

This is the state's website for position openings throughout Indiana. It is very interactive and it will help an individual create a resume, explore a career, research the job market, and find a job. Employers can post a job on this site and find a candidate for it. Indiana Career Connect is affiliated with and is a part of WorkOne.

Evansville "Courier and Press" Website for Jobs

www.courierpress.com/hotjobs/

This is a broad-based website that provides numerous vectors to find employment opportunities.

United Way of Southwestern Indiana 211 Helpline

Simply dial 211 from any telephone.

Operation Hours: Answered locally from 8:00 AM to 5:00 PM Monday through Friday
Answered from an Indianapolis resource on weekends

This helpline is staffed by certified information referral specialists who are able to refer callers to 945 programs offered through 518 local and national agencies. Free consultation is provided to people through the helpline so they can obtain assistance for medical, dental, food, clothing, counseling, literacy, and other needs.

Indiana State Health Insurance Program

www.in.gov/idoi/

On this website you can compare the medical insurance plans offered through numerous carriers so that you can find the plan most suited to you in terms of budget and options. You will find a wide selection of family and individual plans, self-employed plans, plans only for children or students, plans for high-risk individuals, short-term plans, senior plans and others.

Indiana Family and Social Services Administration

Call 1-877-438-4479 for help with medical insurance through the Healthy Indiana Plan (HIP).

www.in.gov/fssa/

The website for the Indiana Family and Social Services Administration offers a wide variety of information on assistance with medical insurance through Medicaid and other programs such as HIP – Healthy Indiana Plan, CHIP – Children’s Health Insurance Program.

U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development

Call 1-800-569-4287 for help in locating a HUD-approved housing counselor.

www.hud.gov/foreclosure/index.cfm

This Housing and Urban Development website is dedicated to helping people avoid foreclosure on their homes and managing their mortgage payments. It is also a link to a

HUD-approved housing counselor who can be of substantial assistance in avoiding or dealing with a foreclosure. The counseling may be free or very nearly so. Counseling may avoid the use of a “foreclosure prevention company” which can be quite expensive as compared to free (or very nearly so) help from a HUD-approved counselor. The website offers information on how to get help now, keeping your home, refinance options, and the steps in foreclosure if it comes to that.

Indiana Housing and Community Development Authority

Call 1-877-GET-HOPE to speak with a certified foreclosure specialist any day of the week between 8:00 AM and 8:00 PM.

www.in.gov/ihcda/

www.877gethope.org/

This is the official foreclosure prevention website for the state of Indiana. The Indiana Foreclosure Prevention Network (IFPN) was created to provide Hoosiers who may be facing foreclosure with access to free and unbiased information and counseling. Visit both websites to educate yourself on the options that are available to you. Several mortgage foreclosure-counseling resources are available.

ADDITIONAL RESOURCES

Temporary Assistance to Needy Families (TANF)

Individuals may apply for assistance one of three ways: calling the toll free number, applying on-line or in person at their county DFR office. You will need proof of income, Social Security number, birth certificates for children or other documentation.

State Employment Service

Each state has an employment service whose purpose is to match unemployed citizens with available jobs in the state. Services of the state employment service are free. The state employment service usually provides lists of current job openings, trained counselors, aptitude testing (to determine what kinds of jobs you can do), training in job search skills, job training programs and information on education and retraining programs.
